CALI Author

Bells, whistles and things you maybe didn't know you could do.

Sarah Glassmeyer
Director of Content Development
Center for Computer-Assisted Legal Instruction
Sarah@CALI.org

Agenda

- What are CALI lessons?
- Auto Publish
- LessonLink

CALI Lessons

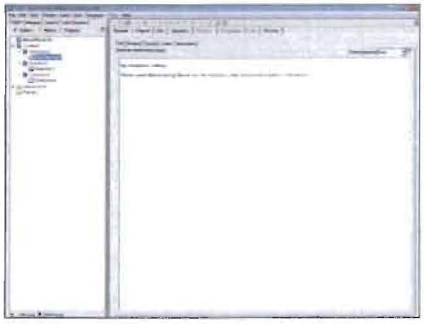
- 850+ and counting
- Written by law professors and law librarians
- reviewed by editorial board and staff several times pre- and post-publication

CALI Author Software

- CALI User License allows for editing, publishing and republishing of lessons by "authorized users." (That's you!)
- Won't appear on website list.

http://www.cali.org/caliauthor

CALI Authoring Software



Anatomy of a CALI Lesson

Faculty Features

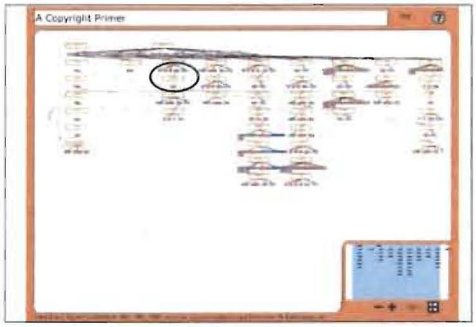
- Downloads – Flash, Windows, Mac
- Run Lesson
- Faculty View
- Lesson Mapper
- LessonLink

Page from Lesson

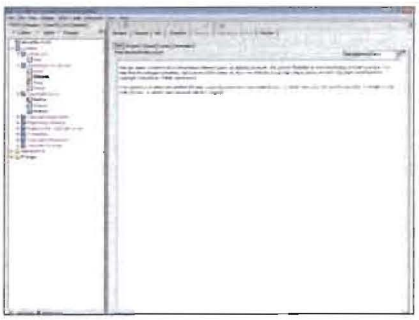
Faculty View

Faculty View of Page

Mapper



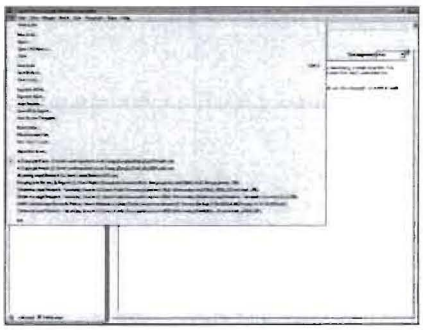
Software View



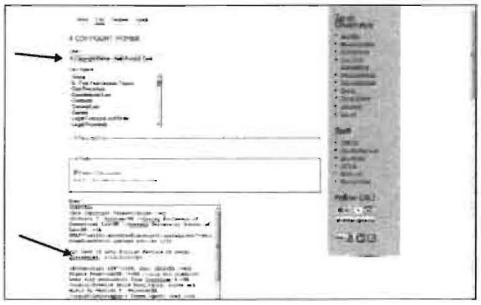
Auto Publish

- Allows faculty members to publish their own lessons or edited versions of another's lesson.
- Only visible to those who have URL.
- Faculty can track scores and who has taken the lesson, even if they didn't finish.

Auto Publish



Auto Publish, continued



Auto Publish, continued

Auto Publish, Continued

Auto Publish, continued.

LessonLink

- Creates special URL for a lesson
- Allows faculty members to track scores and lesson runs.
- LessonLinks grouped by course

LessonLink

LessonLink, Continued

Lesson Link Creation

Questions?

Sarah@CALI.org