

Instructions: Considering the assessment by others of your strengths, assess your strengths in terms of the professional competencies that legal employers want in hiring new lawyers, and score each of the competencies (scale: 1–5, 1 = not yet developed, 5 = expert/great strength). Note that the chapters in Section III of the Roadmap provide developmental scales on nearly all of these competencies.

Competency Synthesis Table

Professional Competency	Student Assessment of Competency
1. Is trustworthy
2. Is honest and truthful with members of the organization
3. Demonstrates good judgment and problem solving
4. Has good analytical skills
5. Has a great deal of initiative
6. Has a strong work ethic
7. Is effective in written/oral communication
8. Has internalized a responsibility to others
9. Demonstrates concern and sensitivity for others
10. Has effective teamwork skills
11. Is well organized in his or her work
12. Is able to manage projects with efficiency, timeliness, and high quality
13. Can be relied upon to get things done
14. Does what he/she says he/she is going to do
15. Has basic doctrinal knowledge needed for new lawyers
16. Is committed to professional development
17. Seeks feedback
18. Is receptive to feedback
19. Admits when he/she is wrong
20. Has strong research skills	